The Faculty of Economics comprises of three Departments: Economics, Business Administration, and Economics and Law. The Faculty of Economics is especially tailor made to offer subjects of a wide array through the three Departments, and train professionals capable of contributing to long term development and welfare of the society.

The Department of Economics offers a handpicked range of subjects including Finance, Economic Policy, International Economics and Regional Economics. Students at the Department of Business Management have the opportunity to study various subjects pertaining to Accounts and Business Management. The Department of Economics and Law offers a number of subjects related to Law. In addition, to achieve a perfect blend of study areas, all three Departments require that students take a combination of subjects from the two Departments other than their own.

The Faculty of Economics aims to produce broadminded students and empower them with troubleshooting capacities that best answer to the demand in the highly competitive job market.
